School Engagement Plan

Please read over the form closely, being sure to address all guiding questions. Note the Assurances section allows you to confirm practices that are required but do not need further elaboration within the written portion of your plan. In the response fields, you may include links to additional information that can help support your story as you answer the guiding questions.

1: Jointly Developed Expectations and Objectives

Describe how the School works with parents and families to develop and review relevant plans, policies, and strategies related to engagement.

Guiding Questions

- 1.1: How does the School in collaboration with parents establish an engagement plan that reflects the specific academic improvement needs of the School, and that includes programs and practices that enhance engagement and address the specific engagement needs of students and their families?

 [A.C.A. § 6-15-1702(a)]
- 1.2: What efforts have been made to ensure adequate representation of parents and families of participating children in the process (Title I families)?

[ESSA § 1116(c)(3)]

- Parent representatives are involved in the development of the High School Parent and Family Engagement Plan. Surveys are sent to parents.
- Parent representatives and the Parent Facilitator meet annually to review and update the plan to meet the needs of the current parents and students. Data from surveys is used to guide decision making.
- Parents are recruited based on the current student population to ensure a variety of students are represented. Meetings are also held in conjunction with Parent/Teacher conferences to ensure that all parents have the opportunity to participate.
- All parent comments are forwarded to the District Parent and Family Engagement Coordinator if the plan isn't satisfactory. If the Parent Facilitator feels that the issue can be resolved at the building level the issue could also be taken directly to the building principal. If parents request additional meetings, those meetings will be scheduled at the earliest convenience of all the committee members.

2: Communication

Describe how the School will communicate with and distribute information to parents and families.

Guiding Questions

• 2.1: How does the School distribute an informational packet appropriate for the age and grade of each child annually, ensuring to include:

- o description of the engagement program
- o recommended roles for parents, students, teacher, and the School
- o ways for a family to get involved
- survey regarding volunteer interests
- o schedule of activities planned throughout the school year
- regular, two-way, and meaningful system for parents/teachers to communicate [A.C.A. § 6-15-1702(b)(3)(B)(1)]
- 2.2: How will the School ensure information related to school and parent programs, meetings, and other activities is provided to parents in a format and in a language that parents can understand (to the extent practicable)?
 - how is relevant information provided in a variety of ways? (For example, paper copies made available, as well as social media posts, website links, parent apps, etc.?

[ESSA § 1116(e)(5)]

• 2.3: How does the School offer flexible opportunities for meetings with families? $[ESSA \S 1116(c)(2)]$

The school has set up a variety of means to distribute information to parents and students based on the age and grade of each child these include the following:

- Each grade in the high school has set up a Remind group based on the graduation year. Parents are given information about the Remind app and website at CAP conferences and Parent/Teacher conferences. Grade level Remind codes are given to parents at these meetings, posted on social media, posted in the hallways of the school and referenced during other outreach messages.
 - Throughout the school year parents are sent information about ways to be involved, roles that they can play in their child's education, information about school events, links to surveys and always have the option to reply to the teachers that are set up as "Owners" of that particular group in the Remind app. Group "Owners" are typically the principal, counselor, class sponsors, registrar, and teachers that play a key role for that grade.
- Flippin School District has an active social media page on Facebook. Teachers from the high school are encouraged to post information and updates for parents. Mrs. Vanessa Jones, our Curriculum Director, will forward parent messages to specific faculty members for clarification if needed for follow up.

An annual meeting will be scheduled to inform parents of the Title I requirements and parent rights under Title I. This meeting in scheduled in the fall of each year and the public is invited through an announcement in the local newspaper.

• This annual Title I meeting includes information on the following: Parents' Right to Know, school performance, complaint procedures, school/parent compact, parent and family engagement plans, rights for disabled parents, and school improvement plans, school curricula, and assessment information and school data.

Parent meetings are also available on an appointment basis, during parent teacher conferences, CAP meetings and at other times that are deemed necessary.

3: Building Staff Capacity

Describe activities that will be used with School staff to build their capacity to work with parents as equal partners.

Guiding Questions

- 3.1: How does the School build staff capacity to work with parents as equal partners? This may include workshops, conferences, trainings, webinars, and online resources that will be used to ensure ALL School staff (including teachers, specialized instructional personnel, principals, and other School leaders) are aware of:
 - the value and utility of contributions of parents [Title I schools]
 - how to reach out to, communicate with, and work with parents as equal partners [Title I schools]
 - how to implement and coordinate parent programs and build ties between home and the School [Title I schools]

- o how to respond to parent requests for parent and family engagement activities [Title I schools]
- that parents play an integral role in assisting student learning [all schools]
- o how to welcome parents into the School and seek parental support and assistance [all schools]
- the School's process for resolving parent concerns as outlined in the School handbook, including how to define a problem, whom to approach first, and how to develop solutions [all schools]

- Parent engagement facilitators attend professional development to receive mandates for the Parent and Family Engagement policy and keep updated on the responsibilities of the committee.
- Parent representatives are involved in the development of the High School Parent and Family Engagement Plan. Parents are recruited to serve on this committee and collaborate on this plan.
- Faculty and staff receive professional development regarding Parent & Family Engagement communication and interactions as mandated by state law. Teachers and administrators are encouraged to attend Parent Engagement trainings at the OUR Coop and meetings held by organizations such as APCA.

4: Building Parent Capacity

Describe how the School provides opportunities to build parents' capacity to play a role in their children's academic success. This may include conducting workshops, conferences, classes, online resources, Academic Parent-Teacher Team meetings or providing equipment or other materials.

Guiding Questions

- 4.1: How does the School provide timely information about the following:
 - o a description and explanation of the curriculum in use at the School
 - the forms of State and Local academic assessments used to measure student progress, including alternate assessments
 - the achievement levels of the challenging State academic standards students are expected to meet

[ESSA § 1116(c)(4)(B)]

- 4.2: How does the School provide assistance to parents in understanding the following:
 - o the requirements of Title I, Part A
 - how to monitor their child's progress
 - o how to work with educators to improve the achievement of their children.

[ESSA § 1116(e)(1)]

- 4.3: What types of materials and training does the School provide to help parents work with their children to improve their children's achievement? This may include:
 - o literacy training
 - technology training, including education about copyright piracy and safe practices
 - o resources that describe or assist with the child's curriculum
 - o other activities such as workshops, conferences, online resources like tutorials or webinars, and any equipment or other materials, including parent resource centers

[ESSA § 1116(e)(2)]

- 4.4: Involve parents of students at all grade levels in a variety of roles, including without limitation:
 - o involvement in the education of their children
 - volunteer activities
 - o learning activities and support classroom instruction
 - o participation in School decisions
 - o collaboration with the community
 - o development of School goals and priorities
 - o evaluating the effectiveness of the School-level Improvement Plan

[A.C.A. § 6-15-1702(b)(1); ADE Rules Governing Parental Involvement Section 3.03]

- 4.5: How does the School promote and support responsible parenting? The School shall, as funds are available:
 - o purchase parenting books, magazines, and other informative material regarding responsible

parenting through the School library, advertise the current selection, and give parents an opportunity to borrow the materials for review

Create parent centers

[A.C.A. § 6-15-1702(b)(4)(A)]

- 4.6: How does the School provide instruction to parents on how to incorporate developmentally appropriate learning activities in the home environment, including without limitation:
 - o role play and demonstration by trained volunteers
 - the use of and access to Department of Education website tools for parents [https://dese.ade.arkansas.gov]
 - o assistance with nutritional meal planning

[A.C.A. § 6-15-1702(b)(5)(B)(ii)(a-d)]

- Parents are actively involved in Career Action Plan (CAP) conferences at least two times a year in high school. During these meetings parents, along with their student(s), participate in a meeting with their teacher advisor to create a plan for their academic success. Parents go over a four year plan, class schedule, course options, student concerns, student success plans, parent concerns and update on any past assessments.
 - · Parent resources are available in school parent centers.
- The High School teachers and staff are continually looking for innovative ways to communicate with students and parents about learning and student growth. Throughout each school year parents and students are contacted through our phone alert system, school website, social media pages, email and regular mail.

5: Coordination

Describe how the School will coordinate with other organizations, businesses, and community partners, including alumni, to provide additional supports, services, and resources to families..

Guiding Questions

- 5.1: How does the School investigate and utilize community resources in the instructional program? [ADE Rules Governing Parental Involvement Section 5.06]
- 5.2: How does the School coordinate and integrate programs and activities with other Federal, State, and local programs? Some examples include:
 - o public preschool programs such as Head Start
 - o organizations/activities to help students transition to elementary, middle, high, and postsecondary schools or careers
 - wraparound services that allow families to send their children to school ready and able to focus on learning

[ESSA §1116(e)(4)]

• 5.3: In what ways does the School enable the formation of a Parent Teacher Association or organization and ensure leaders of said organization will be included in appropriate decisions?

[A.C.A. § 6-15-1702(b)(8)(B)(ii)]

- Industry and business tours are given to CTE classes throughout the year so students may gain real-world perspective and consider career opportunities. The District partners with local colleges so students may begin receiving concurrent credit and/or technical training before high school graduation.
- Teachers in the high school have created an orientation program from middle school to high school to help with this transitional stage. Students are given a tour of the school, go over critical rules, credits, schedules, and discuss the importance of responsibilty. Students will choose classes, be introduced to some of their teachers and meet their principal. The goal is to get them prepared for high school and get them focused on learning.

6: Annual Title I Meeting (Title I schools)

Describe the details regarding the Annual Title I meeting used to inform parents of the requirements of Title I, the School's participation, and the parents' rights to be involved.

Guiding Questions

- 6.1: How and when (month/year) does the School conduct the Annual Title I meeting, ensuring that parents are informed of the following? (*Include a link to the detailed agenda, meeting minutes, and/or slide deck for this year's Annual Title I Meeting, if available.)
 - the requirements of Title I and the School's participation
 - the parents' rights under Title I (The Right to Know Teacher Qualifications, Right to Request Meetings)

[ESSA § 1116(c)(1)]

• An annual meeting will be scheduled to inform parents of the Title I requirements and parent rights under Title I. This meeting in scheduled in the fall of each year and the public is invited through an announcement in the Mountaineer Echo. The slide deck is also posted on the district website for easy access.

7: School-Parent Compact (Title I schools)

Describe the process School will follow to jointly develop with parents a School-Parent Compact as required under Title I, Part A.

Guiding Questions

- 7.1: How does the School jointly develop a School-Parent Compact which does the following:
 - Outlines how parents, the entire School staff, and students will share the responsibility for improved student academic achievement
 - o Addresses the importance of regular two-way, meaningful communication through:
 - conferences (no fewer than 2 each year)
 - frequent reports on progress
 - reasonable access to staff
 - opportunities to volunteer
 - observation of classroom activities

[ESSA § 1116(d)]

- 7.2: How do families access the compact in order to understand the shared responsibility for improved student academic achievement?
 - o Including parent-teacher conferences in elementary Schools, at least annually
 - Include a link or insert the language of the compact to demonstrate this requirement has been met.

[ESSA § 1116(d)(2)(A)]

• The school has developed jointly with our parents a written policy that is designed to encourage our parents and our schools to form strong partnerships together.

"Flippin Schools and the parents of the students participating in activities, services, and programs funded by Title I, Part A of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act (ESEA) (participating children), agree that this compact outlines how the parents, the entire school staff, and the students will share the responsibility for improved student academic achievement and the means by which the school and parents will build and develop a partnership that will help children achieve the State's high standards." (Page 143, 2022-2023 Student Handbook)

• This policy is available to our community via our school's website (flippinschools.com). Click here for a direct link to our handbook with the parent compact.

8: Reservation of Funds (Title I schools)

Describe how the School uses Title I, Part A funds set-aside for parent and family engagement programs and activities.

Guiding Questions

- 8.1: If the School is a recipient of set aside funds for parent and family engagement (as part of receiving a Title I, Part A allocation greater than $500,000):
 - How is the School spending those funds?
 - How does the School determine the priority of how funds are spent?
 - Who is involved in determining that?

[ESSA § 1116(a)(3)(A)]

• 8.2: How does the School provide opportunities for parents and family members to be involved in providing input into how the funds are used?

[ESSA § 1116(a)(3)(B); ESSA § 1116(a)(3)(C); ESSA § 1116(a)(3)(D)(i-v)]

The district does not receive more than $500,000 in Title I allocation. However, the school allots Title I monies for several different parent involvement opportunities. Some examples of expenditures would be the parentlink app and books and activities sent home during this coming year for 9-12 grade students' summer learning. The goal of our reading initiative is to encourage parents to help their students reach grade level reading benchmarks.
